

Book Group Questions for Piper's Sense

1. Was there engagement with Piper's character?
2. Was there engagement with Ray's character?
3. Was the antagonist believable?
4. What are the main characters' most important traits?
5. Were there passages in the book that you found interesting or revealing?
6. What did you like best about the book?
7. What would you like to have seen in the book?
8. What literary elements, (for example: setting, plot, characterizations, conflict, point of view, theme, tone) does the writer use to help reader understand views of characters?
9. What techniques does the writer use to create mood? (for example: sight, sound, touch, taste, smell)
10. What is the one thing that the writer makes you curious about?
11. Most interesting scene in novel?
12. What does the writer do to catch your interest?
13. Is there a theme in the story with which you connect?
14. If you got a chance to ask the author of this book a question, what would it be?